Important information about registration and participation in the Annual Meeting

All shareholders and their proxies, who register their presence/representation at the Meeting seven (7) days before the Meeting (i.e. on 20th May 2008 at the latest) shall be entitled to attend and to vote.

Shareholders can register their presence/representation in the Legal Affairs Department at the registered office of the Company in Zagreb, Krapinska 45, between 10.00 and 12.00 every workday.

The following documents shall be submitted to the registration commission:

- Personal registration form if the shareholder attends in person,
- Personal registration form and authorization form if the shareholder’s representative (proxy) attends.

The shareholders and their proxies respectively, are entitled to file (submit in writing) notes and proposals regarding the proposed decisions within the registration period.

The registration commission shall hand over to shareholder, or his proxy, the registration document and a receipt for the submitted (filed) proposals.

The shareholder or his/her proxy who does not register shall not be entitled to take an active part in the Meeting.

The shareholder’s proxy shall have a valid authorization document, which does not have to be verified by the notary public. The authorization document shall state the issuer of the authorization, to whom it is issued (name and family name, address), to what purpose and that the proxy is authorized to vote at the Meeting.

If the proxy represents a legal person he has to enclose with the authorization document a document showing that the issuer of authorization document has legal authority to represent the legal person in question (statement from the Court Register of Companies).

The shareholding capacity is checked by insight into the Central Depository Agency data.

The required identification document is a personal identity paper (personal identification card or passport). Written materials for the Annual Meeting that are required to make decisions shall be available to shareholders for insight starting with the date of public announcement of the Meeting, in the Legal Affairs Dept. at the registered office of the Company, every workday between 9.00 and 15.00.

The registration of attendance of persons authorized to take part in the proceedings shall start two (2) hours before the time scheduled for the beginning of the Meeting, upon the presentation of the registration document.

In case the shareholders who together own the twentieth part of the share capital of the Joint Stock Company put a request, after the Meeting has been convened, that the subject matter of decisions to be made at the Meeting should be made public, this has to be done within ten days after the Meeting has been convened. If the mentioned deadline should not be kept the proposed agenda would be considered as not lawfully announced.

Any shareholder is entitled to submit to the Company at least two weeks prior to the Meeting a counterproposal to the proposal submitted by the Managing Director and/or Supervisory Board relating to a particular agenda item, with due explanation, to the following address:

Ericsson Nikola Tesla d.d. Zagreb
Krapinska 45
10000 Zagreb

If the Meeting should lack a quorum (more than 50% of the stock representing the share capital) the Managing Director shall, within the following 3 days, send to shareholders Meeting notices with the same agenda. The new Meeting shall be convened not later than 15 days after the originally convened, i.e. on 11th June 2008 at the latest. The decisions adopted at the new Meeting shall be considered lawful disregarding the number of represented shareholders.
